The Creativity Spark
How does it arise?
Can it be nurtured?
Is it jeopardized by today’s culture?

You are invited to a Creativity Workshop for Scientists

Join us for a creativity workshop featuring award winning scientists and scholars, including two Nobel Laureates, as they discuss the Creativity Spark and its role in science exploration.

Monday, July 25, 2016
Plant Science, Room 233
9:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
